Castiglione Messer Marino is a typical village of the Abruzzese mountains, the Apennines, located at 1,000 meters above sea level on the border with Molise. The climate is typically mountainous, characterized by cold and snowy winters and sunny but dry summers. The municipality preserves prestigious buildings and ancient churches such as the church of San Michele di Castiglione which dates back to the 15th century. It is located in the historic center of the town near the ancient castle and at the Sant'Angelo gate from which it takes its name.
Castiglione is easily reachable from Pescara, Rome and Naples.

A curiosity: Castiglione is the country of origin of the father of the famous Formula 1 driver Juan Manuel Fangio, five times world champion.
