Castiglione Messer Marino is a typical town in the Abruzzo mountains, the Apennines, located at 1,000 meters above sea level on the border with Molise. The climate is typically mountainous, characterized by harsh, snowy winters and sunny but dry summers. The municipality preserves prestigious buildings and ancient churches such as the church of San Michele Arcangelo which dates back to the 15th century. It is located in the historic center of the town near the ancient castle and the Sant'Angelo gate from which it takes its name.

Castiglione is easily reachable from Pescara, Rome and Naples.

A curiosity: Castiglione is the town of origin of the father of the famous Formula 1 driver Juan Manuel Fangio, five-time world champion.
