Schiavi di Abruzzo is a town of about 1,000 inhabitants located in the province of Chieti. The territory has been inhabited for over 2,000 years. In fact, countless archaeological finds have been discovered that testify to an ancient and deep-rooted peasant civilization. In the 2nd century BC, an imposing Sanctuary and an Italic Temple were built. Traditions and a sense of hospitality are the true heritage of the population, which is developing the innate vocation for tourism of a territory rich in naturalistic and archaeological resources.

The municipality is approximately 40 km from the sea and 95 km from Pescara airport.
