Schiavi di Abruzzo is a municipality of approximately 1,000 inhabitants located in the province of Chieti. The area has been inhabited for over 2,000 years. Numerous archaeological finds have been discovered, testifying to an ancient and deeply rooted rural civilization. An imposing sanctuary and an Italic temple were built in the 2nd century BC. Traditions and a sense of hospitality are the true heritage of the population, which is developing the innate vocation for tourism in a region rich in natural and archaeological resources.

The municipality is approximately 40 km from the sea and 95 km from Pescara Airport.
