Poggio Sannita is a municipality in the province of Isernia with approximately 800 inhabitants, known as Poggesi (also known as Caccavonesi). The territory covers approximately 20 square kilometers and is located 700 meters above sea level. The municipality is very close to the border with the Abruzzo region. Located in the heart of the "Alto Molise" mountain community, Poggio Sannita is 40 km from Isernia, 55 km from Campobasso (the regional capital), 60 km from San Salvo (a seaside town), and 110 km from Pescara (International Airport). Given its geographic conformation, its main resources are natural, environmental, and especially agricultural, with its renowned extra virgin olive oil.
