Castelverrino is a small municipality located on the right side of the Verrino valley and located in the valley between the Pietrabbondante walls and the municipalities of Poggio Sannita and Agnone, almost on the border with Abruzzo. The landscape typology is the high-hilly one with extensive crops of forage, olive trees and vines.

The sublime beauty of the landscape and the presence of a rich culture of traditions make this small village a great resource. Castelverrino is well connected to the major cities and airports of the central south: Pescara and Naples are about an hour and a half away, Rome about two and a half hours.
